

Daniel Jalkut (P6, he/him)

Today at 6:00 PM

For the record: the account has been deactivated. I decided to take swift action because I don't believe what anything anybody discusses in here should be subject to direct scrutiny by the general public. Obviously I can't control what anybody in here chooses to share with him or other non-TMMs who are interested, but I would say it's most definitely

Slack to share the goings-on with the outside world, and it was also not in the spirit of the Slack to share the invitation link with him or any other non-TMM.

4 replies

Adam MacNeill P6
(he/him)

6 hours ago

Thanks. I am positive that there was no misunderstanding, and I appreciate you acting swiftly. Harrington has a long history of harassing and attempting to intimidate people

Lisa Bielefeld (P12)

5 hours ago

He has complained about our use of Slack on the Arlington email list- this is the kind of comment that he is known for:

About 100 Town Meeting members, and others, have a Slack channel for private communications during town meeting. You might be shocked to read what is written there.

Adam MacNeill P6
(he/him)

6 hours ago

Thanks. I am positive that there was no misunderstanding, and I appreciate you acting swiftly. Harrington has a long history of harassing and attempting to intimidate people, especially women.

1

2

Annie LaCourt Pct 13 9:06 PM

I am not going to raise a point of order over this but I think Mr. Kaepplein was very disrespectful and should have been stood down instead of expecting the proponents to respond. He was uncivil.

:exploding_head:

4

:bangbang:

4

:point_up:

2

:zipper_mouth_face:

1

AA

emoji.gg

BangBang

Download Emoji

Add using the bot

Kohai

Hello, this is a Discord emoji!

Emoji Musk

Hello, this is a Slack emoji!

Share & Embed